

The Challenges of DEMOCRATIC CONSOLIDATION in Nigeria

Supported by Tertiary Education Trust Fund
TETF/DESS/UNI/GUSAU/AMB/14-15-16/1&4

Abdulrahman Adamu

About the Author

Abdulrahman Adamu hails from Angwa in Ankpa Local Government Area of Kogi State. He is a Lecturer in the Department of Political Science, Federal University, Gusau, Nigeria. He holds a B.Sc. Degree in Political Science from the prestigious University of Maiduguri in 2008, obtained his M.Sc. Degree in Political Science from Bayero University, Kano in 2014 and currently pursuing his PhD programme in Political Science. After his one-year compulsory NYSC scheme with the House of Representatives Committee on Works, National Assembly, Abuja, in 2009/10, he joined the services of Radio Nigeria as a journalist and worked between 2010 and July 2015. He was also a Part-Time Lecturer with Fidel Polytechnic Gboko-Abuja Study Center between 2009 and 2015 and Wolex Polytechnic Iwo-Abuja Study Center between 2010 and 2013.

While in the University of Maiduguri, he participated actively in students' politics and held some positions such as Secretary General, Igala Students Association (ISA), Financial Secretary, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) and President, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) University of Maiduguri Chapter.

He is the author of "The Crisis of Leadership: An Obstacle to Sustainable Democracy and Development in Nigeria." Mr. Adamu has published numerous journal articles in reputable and indexed journals and has attended and presented papers in national and international conferences.

He is happily married and blessed with two lovely and special children.

About the Book

This book: "The Challenges of Democratic Consolidation in Nigeria" hinges on the re-conceptualization of democracy and democratic consolidation in Nigeria with the aim to ascertaining the level of progress made so far in terms of the provision social services to the people. This book however, deals with the past, the present and the future democratic issues and challenges confronting the consolidation of Nigerian Democracy.

It is therefore, fundamental to note that since the return to civil rule from autocracy in Nigeria on the 29th May, 1999, the country has witnessed various degrees of socio-economic and political conflicts in her quest for attaining democratic sustainability which this book has thematically identified and discussed. It is hoped that students of Political Science in particular and social sciences in general, stakeholders of the Nigerian democratic institutions, members of political parties and those who wish to lead this nation in any capacity would find this book very useful in the course of governing the country.

Published & Printed by:
Ahmadu Bello University Press Ltd.,
P.M.B. 1094 Samaru, Zaria, Nigeria. Tel: 08065949711.
E-mail: abupresslimited2005@yahoo.co.uk; abupress2013@gmail.com
Website: www.abupress.org

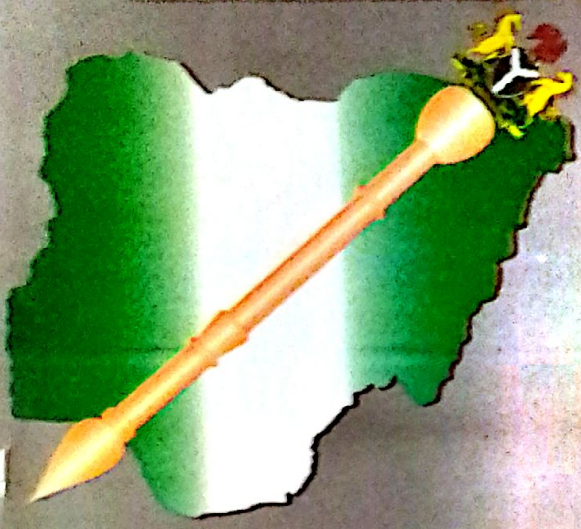

ISBN 978-978-58653-7-0

9 789785 865370

1 0 4 1 6

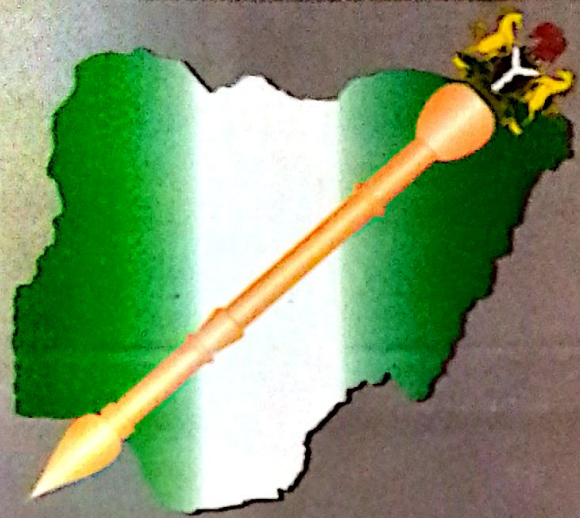

The Challenges of
DEMOCRATIC CONSOLIDATION
in Nigeria

tetfund
TERTIARY EDUCATION TRUST FUND
Supported by Tertiary Education Trust Fund
TETF / DESIS / UNCL / GUSAU / AMB / 14-15-16 / 184

Abdulrahman Adamu

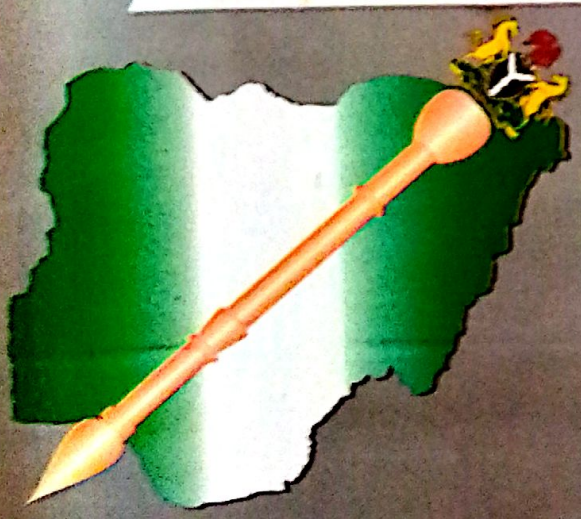

The Challenges of
DEMOCRATIC CONSOLIDATION
in Nigeria

tetfund
TERTIARY EDUCATION TRUST FUND
Supported by Tertiary Education Trust Fund
TETF / DESIS / UNCL / GUSAU / AMB / 14-15-16 / 184

Abdulrahman Adamu

The Challenges of
DEMOCRATIC CONSOLIDATION
in Nigeria

tetfund
TERTIARY EDUCATION TRUST FUND
Supported by Tertiary Education Trust Fund
TETF / DESIS / UNCL / GUSAU / AMB / 14-15-16 / 184

Abdulrahman Adamu

The Challenges of
DEMOCRATIC CONSOLIDATION
in Nigeria

tetfund
TERTIARY EDUCATION TRUST FUND
Supported by Tertiary Education Trust Fund
TETF / DESIS / UNCL / GUSAU / AMB / 14-15-16 / 184

Abdulrahman Adamu

About the Author

Abdulrahman Adamu hails from Angwa in Ankpa Local Government Area of Kogi State. He is a Lecturer in the Department of Political Science, Federal University, Gusau, Nigeria. He holds a B.Sc. Degree in Political Science from the prestigious University of Maiduguri in 2008, obtained his M.Sc. Degree in Political Science from Bayero University, Kano in 2014 and currently pursuing his PhD programme in Political Science. After his one-year compulsory NYSC scheme with the House of Representatives Committee on Works, National Assembly, Abuja, in 2009/10, he joined the services of Radio Nigeria as a journalist and worked between 2010 and July 2015. He was also a Part-Time Lecturer with Fidel Polytechnic Gboko-Abuja Study Center between 2009 and 2015 and Wolex Polytechnic Iwo-Abuja Study Center between 2010 and 2013.

While in the University of Maiduguri, he participated actively in students' politics and held some positions such as Secretary General, Igala Students Association (ISA), Financial Secretary, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) and President, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) University of Maiduguri Chapter.

He is the author of "The Crisis of Leadership: An Obstacle to Sustainable Democracy and Development in Nigeria." Mr. Adamu has published numerous journal articles in reputable and indexed journals and has attended and presented papers in national and international conferences.

He is happily married and blessed with two lovely and special children.

About the Book

This book: "The Challenges of Democratic Consolidation in Nigeria" hinges on the re-conceptualization of democracy and democratic consolidation in Nigeria with the aim to ascertaining the level of progress made so far in terms of the provision social services to the people. This book however, deals with the past, the present and the future democratic issues and challenges confronting the consolidation of Nigerian Democracy.

It is therefore, fundamental to note that since the return to civil rule from autocracy in Nigeria on the 29th May, 1999, the country has witnessed various degrees of socio-economic and political conflicts in her quest for attaining democratic sustainability which this book has thematically identified and discussed. It is hoped, that students of Political Science in particular and social sciences in general, stakeholders of the Nigerian democratic institutions, members of political parties and those who wish to lead this nation in any capacity would find this book very useful in the course of governing the country.

Published & Printed by:
Ahmadu Bello University Press Ltd.,
P.M.B. 1004 Samaru, Zaria, Nigeria. Tel: 08065948711.
E-mail: abupresslimited2005@yahoo.co.uk; abupress2013@gmail.com
Website: www.abupress.org

ISBN 978-978-58653-7-0

9 789785 865370 3 0436

About the Author

Abdulrahman Adamu hails from Angwa in Ankpa Local Government Area of Kogi State. He is a Lecturer in the Department of Political Science, Federal University, Gusau, Nigeria. He holds a B.Sc. Degree in Political Science from the prestigious University of Maiduguri in 2008, obtained his M.Sc. Degree in Political Science from Bayero University, Kano in 2014 and currently pursuing his PhD programme in Political Science. After his one-year compulsory NYSC scheme with the House of Representatives Committee on Works, National Assembly, Abuja, in 2009/10, he joined the services of Radio Nigeria as a journalist and worked between 2010 and July 2015. He was also a Part-Time Lecturer with Fidel Polytechnic Gboko-Abuja Study Center between 2009 and 2015 and Wolex Polytechnic Iwo-Abuja Study Center between 2010 and 2013.

While in the University of Maiduguri, he participated actively in students' politics and held some positions such as Secretary General, Igala Students Association (ISA), Financial Secretary, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) and President, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) University of Maiduguri Chapter.

He is the author of "The Crisis of Leadership: An Obstacle to Sustainable Democracy and Development in Nigeria." Mr. Adamu has published numerous journal articles in reputable and indexed journals and has attended and presented papers in national and international conferences.

He is happily married and blessed with two lovely and special children.

About the Book

This book: "The Challenges of Democratic Consolidation in Nigeria" hinges on the re-conceptualization of democracy and democratic consolidation in Nigeria with the aim to ascertaining the level of progress made so far in terms of the provision social services to the people. This book however, deals with the past, the present and the future democratic issues and challenges confronting the consolidation of Nigerian Democracy.

It is therefore, fundamental to note that since the return to civil rule from autocracy in Nigeria on the 29th May, 1999, the country has witnessed various degrees of socio-economic and political conflicts in her quest for attaining democratic sustainability which this book has thematically identified and discussed. It is hoped that students of Political Science in particular and social sciences in general, stakeholders of the Nigerian democratic institutions, members of political parties and those who wish to lead this nation in any capacity would find this book very useful in the course of governing the country.

Published & Printed by:
Ahmadu Bello University Press Ltd.,
P.M.B. 1004 Samaru, Zaria, Nigeria. Tel: 08065948711.
E-mail: abupresslimited2005@yahoo.co.uk; abupress2013@gmail.com
Website: www.abupress.org

ISBN 978-978-58653-7-0

9 789785 865370 3 0436

About the Author

Abdulrahman Adamu hails from Angwa in Ankpa Local Government Area of Kogi State. He is a Lecturer in the Department of Political Science, Federal University, Gusau, Nigeria. He holds a B.Sc. Degree in Political Science from the prestigious University of Maiduguri in 2008, obtained his M.Sc. Degree in Political Science from Bayero University, Kano in 2014 and currently pursuing his PhD programme in Political Science. After his one-year compulsory NYSC scheme with the House of Representatives Committee on Works, National Assembly, Abuja, in 2009/10, he joined the services of Radio Nigeria as a journalist and worked between 2010 and July 2015. He was also a Part-Time Lecturer with Fidel Polytechnic Gboko-Abuja Study Center between 2009 and 2015 and Wolex Polytechnic Iwo-Abuja Study Center between 2010 and 2013.

While in the University of Maiduguri, he participated actively in students' politics and held some positions such as Secretary General, Igala Students Association (ISA), Financial Secretary, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) and President, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) University of Maiduguri Chapter.

He is the author of "The Crisis of Leadership: An Obstacle to Sustainable Democracy and Development in Nigeria." Mr. Adamu has published numerous journal articles in reputable and indexed journals and has attended and presented papers in national and international conferences.

He is happily married and blessed with two lovely and special children.

About the Book

This book: "The Challenges of Democratic Consolidation in Nigeria" hinges on the re-conceptualization of democracy and democratic consolidation in Nigeria with the aim to ascertaining the level of progress made so far in terms of the provision social services to the people. This book however, deals with the past, the present and the future democratic issues and challenges confronting the consolidation of Nigerian Democracy.

It is therefore, fundamental to note that since the return to civil rule from autocracy in Nigeria on the 29th May, 1999, the country has witnessed various degrees of socio-economic and political conflicts in her quest for attaining democratic sustainability which this book has thematically identified and discussed. It is hoped that students of Political Science in particular and social sciences in general, stakeholders of the Nigerian democratic institutions, members of political parties and those who wish to lead this nation in any capacity would find this book very useful in the course of governing the country.

Published & Printed by:
Ahmadu Bello University Press Ltd.,
P.M.B. 1004 Samaru, Zaria, Nigeria. Tel: 08065948711.
E-mail: abupresslimited2005@yahoo.co.uk; abupress2013@gmail.com
Website: www.abupress.org

ISBN 978-978-58653-7-0

9 789785 865370 3 0436

About the Author

Abdulrahman Adamu hails from Angwa in Ankpa Local Government Area of Kogi State. He is a Lecturer in the Department of Political Science, Federal University, Gusau, Nigeria. He holds a B.Sc. Degree in Political Science from the prestigious University of Maiduguri in 2008, obtained his M.Sc. Degree in Political Science from Bayero University, Kano in 2014 and currently pursuing his PhD programme in Political Science. After his one-year compulsory NYSC scheme with the House of Representatives Committee on Works, National Assembly, Abuja, in 2009/10, he joined the services of Radio Nigeria as a journalist and worked between 2010 and July 2015. He was also a Part-Time Lecturer with Fidel Polytechnic Gboko-Abuja Study Center between 2009 and 2015 and Wolex Polytechnic Iwo-Abuja Study Center between 2010 and 2013.

While in the University of Maiduguri, he participated actively in students' politics and held some positions such as Secretary General, Igala Students Association (ISA), Financial Secretary, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) and President, National Association of Political Science Students (NAPSS) University of Maiduguri Chapter.

He is the author of "The Crisis of Leadership: An Obstacle to Sustainable Democracy and Development in Nigeria." Mr. Adamu has published numerous journal articles in reputable and indexed journals and has attended and presented papers in national and international conferences.

He is happily married and blessed with two lovely and special children.

About the Book

This book: "The Challenges of Democratic Consolidation in Nigeria" hinges on the re-conceptualization of democracy and democratic consolidation in Nigeria with the aim to ascertaining the level of progress made so far in terms of the provision social services to the people. This book however, deals with the past, the present and the future democratic issues and challenges confronting the consolidation of Nigerian Democracy.

It is therefore, fundamental to note that since the return to civil rule from autocracy in Nigeria on the 29th May, 1999, the country has witnessed various degrees of socio-economic and political conflicts in her quest for attaining democratic sustainability which this book has thematically identified and discussed. It is hoped that students of Political Science in particular and social sciences in general, stakeholders of the Nigerian democratic institutions, members of political parties and those who wish to lead this nation in any capacity would find this book very useful in the course of governing the country.

Published & Printed by:
Ahmadu Bello University Press Ltd.,
P.M.B. 1004 Samaru, Zaria, Nigeria. Tel: 08065948711.
E-mail: abupresslimited2005@yahoo.co.uk; abupress2013@gmail.com
Website: www.abupress.org

ISBN 978-978-58653-7-0

9 789785 865370 3 0436

The Challenges of Democratic Consolidation in Nigeria